

Enter a lush botanical wonderland and immerse yourself in the surprising, delightful and transformative power of art. Join BCA performing and visual artists as they create sonic landscapes, interactive performances, participatory installations—underscoring the relationship between artist and audience and inviting you to share in moments of radical artistic exchange.

Immerse yourself in:

- The Lavender Lounge by Audrey Harrer
- The Citrus Lounge by Kadahj Bennett
- An interactive photoshoot by Ally Schmaling and OJ Slaughter

Feast your eyes on:

- Performances by ANIKAYA and Connections Dance Theatre
- An exclusive premiere screening of John D. Lam's film Movement in Structure, directed by Shaun Clarke
- And the much-anticipated 150 x 150 Art Sale and Silent Auction

How to browse, buy or bid:

1. Follow this link to our customized BidPal event page
2. Sign-in with your email address and follow the prompts
3. Browse, buy and bid!

\ All advanced art purchasing will close at NOON on Saturday, June 1 and re-open at the event. If you purchase a piece of artwork in advance, it will be on exhibition during the event but will be marked as sold. A BCA Ball staff member can assist you with scheduling pick-up times as needed for any art sale or auction items purchased off-site.*

Proceeds from the BCA Ball 2019 directly fund BCA's innovative residency programs in visual and public art, music, dance and theatre.