

Studio 210
At the BCA since 2004
Artist email

David Reichert is a contemporary artist known for his intricate and layered works. His art often explores themes of identity, memory, and the human condition. Reichert's style is characterized by a rich palette and a complex, multi-dimensional quality that invites viewers to explore the various elements and narratives within his pieces.