

When you make a gift to Boston Center for the Arts you help us nurture artists and provide resources and opportunities—like:

- affordable work and performance spaces
- residencies in visual and public art, dance, theatre and music
- professional development programs
- curating and exhibition opportunities

Your gift makes it possible for BCA artists to take risks and develop new works like world-class exhibitions and commissioned performances that enrich the community for you.

Give
Now

Learn more about our leadership donor group, The Circle.

Boston Center for the Arts is a nonprofit charitable organization and your gift is tax-deductible to the full extent of the law.