

BCA Plaza Theatres

The BCA Plaza Theatres are located beneath the historic Cyclorama. These underground theatre spaces have been home to some of Boston's most groundbreaking, homegrown artists. Each theatre is unique in its own way and provides opportunities for creative and flexible performative events.

Plaza Theatre

An intimate, unique shaped space with a fixed seating capacity of 142. The three-quarter thrust configuration makes this an ideal space for theatre, music and dance performances.

Plaza Black Box Theatre

This traditional black box space is ideal for any performance-based event. Additionally, this venue is a great space for film and photo shoots. With flexible seating for 90 audience members, the Black Box provides endless staging possibilities.

For more information and booking-related questions or inquiries for the Plaza Theatre or the Plaza Black Box, contact the Boston Center for the Arts Venue Services Team at 617.456.1138 or theatrentals@bcaonline.org