

The Spanish Black Atlantic: Strains in Contemporary Art, Part 2

Thursday, January 28, 2016 | 6:30–8pm

Mills Gallery at the BCA

Free and open to the public

Salon conversation hosted by Camilo Álvarez

Join us on Thursday, January 28 in the BCA's Mills Gallery when Boston gallerist Camilo Álvarez continues his investigation of the subject of the Spanish Black Atlantic and its relevance for contemporary challenges to traditions and conventions of white supremacy in the art world.

The Spanish Black Atlantic: Strains in Contemporary Art, Part 1

Thursday, December 17, 2015 | 6:30–8pm

Mills Gallery at the BCA

Free and open to the public

Salon conversation hosted by Camilo Álvarez

Join us on Thursday, December 17 in the BCA's Mills Gallery when Boston gallerist Camilo Álvarez explores the subject of the Spanish Black Atlantic and its relevance for contemporary challenges to traditions and conventions of white supremacy in the art world during Gertrude's Artists Salon.

The Arts, Culture, Writing and Film Symposium, Ben Davis