"Although my official job title was not illustration based, my supervisor was aware of my skill as an artist and made it a point to integrate my major into my Community Outreach assignments. The individualized attention she gave me helped to cultivate an immense sense of growth and learning." —Danielle, Fall 2014

"The skills I have acquired here will benefit me as I continue in the field of arts administration/management and I recommend it to anyone interested in learning what goes on behind the scenes in the art world!" —Jordan, Summer 2015

"Each day I was given a handful of tasks—which were never monotonous—by a warm, friendly and inspiring supervisor. I learned how the donation process works and, while sitting in on meetings, received a first-hand view of the interconnectedness of the BCA staff members and departments" —Hannah, Summer 2015
